

Limited company: How it works

Contractor joins limited company service provider

Your company is formed

You set up a company bank account

Limited company service provider invoices the agency on your behalf

The agency pays money into your company bank account

Limited company service provider completes all of your company's bookkeeping, and advises you what you have available to withdraw

