

Internal Client Relationship Manager

We have an excellent opportunity within our Sales team for an Internal Client Relationship Manager. The role focuses on generating referrals from PayStream's agencies by telephone and email based activity.

The role is Monday-Friday, 09:00-17:30 and the salary is £27,500 per annum plus commission.

Hybrid working (2 days working from home) is offered following probation.

Main responsibilities:

- To make a minimum of 50 outbound calls per day and a minimum of 2 hours talk time per day
- To generate referrals from agencies by telephone and email-based activity
- Focus on relationships with recruitment agencies that work with temporary contractors
- Ongoing account management responsibility for the agency to ensure exceptional customer service
- Occasional client meetings and hospitality as required
- To work to a strategy for new business development with the Key Account Manager & Regional Sales Manager
- To seek new agency relationships outside of current account base
- Identify specific vertical markets that work with the target contractor population
- To work on additional projects and opportunities as directed by the Key Account Manager & Regional Sales Manager
- To provide verbal and written communication about our products and services to agencies. Utilise social media such as LinkedIn where appropriate
- To maintain a record of prospective accounts, record account profile information and activity on the Sales CRM (Monday.com)

Minimum requirements:

- Minimum grade C in Maths and English GCSE (or equivalent)
- Extensive B2B sales experience, ideally within a field sales role
- Track record of working towards sales KPI's including calls
- Hands-on experience with multiple sales techniques (including cold calls)
- Strong industry knowledge (payroll, umbrella or finance), or come from a recruitment background
